PORTORA AND PORTORANS IN THE SECOND GREAT WAR

A book "Portora and Portorans in the Second Great War" will be published in November 2019 in time for Remembrance Day, eighty years after the start of World War II. The authors are Robert Northridge and Clive Johnston and the book will be in a similar style and format to "Portora and Portorans in the Great War" which was published in 2014. Details of all 456 Portorans who served in WW2 are given and there are full biographies of all 50 Portorans who died as a result of the War. There are also chapters describing the School in the inter-war years.

If you would like to order a copy, please complete and post the form below to Ms. Fiona Johnston, Enniskillen Royal GS, Enniskillen, Co. Fermanagh, N. Ireland, BT74 7HA.
